

Proceeding Aug02 Overview

Human Psi Forum
Human Potential Science
Mystery of Mind and Body
Chiba, Japan
August 23-26, 2002

This meeting was conducted by the International Society of Life Information Science [ISLIS], and was co-sponsored by the Japan Science and Technology Corporation [JST] and the Samuelli Institute. Its purpose was to provide a forum for submitted oral and poster presentations and invited lectures that explored aspects of physical and physiological approaches to exceptional human functions in qigong, yoga, zen and healing, preventive medicine, complementary and alternative medicine, parapsychological phenomena, altered states of consciousness and special mental activities. The audience consisted of basic and clinical research scientists, and health providers. Conference proceedings with papers either in Japanese or English were published in the Journal of ISLIS.

Sponsors

International Society of Life Information Science [ISLIS]
Japan Science and Technology Corporation [JST]
Samuelli Institute

Purpose & Focus

To provide a forum for submitted oral and poster presentations and invited lectures to explore aspects of physical and physiological approaches to exceptional human functions in qigong, yoga, zen and healing, preventive medicine, complementary and alternative medicine, parapsychological phenomena, altered states of consciousness and special mental activities

Audience

Basic and clinical research scientists, academics, health maintenance organization providers and administrators, policy makers and philosophers.

Outcome

Conference Proceedings were published in the September 2002 issue of the Journal of ISLIS, and as a Samuelli Institute Proceedings.

For more information on the contents of the publication, please contact the Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of ISLIS, Professor Mikio Yamamoto PhD at yamamo@nirs.go.jp.

Back to Publications List¹

1. daisy:39-SIIB (Publications)